BROTHER-2-BROTHER
MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

ACCOUNTABILITY

“ACCOUNTABILITY: GOD’S TOOL FOR A STRONG MAN”

Foundational Scripture: Proverbs 27:17

As iron sharpens iron, so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.

Men become stronger when they sharpen one another through accountability, encouragement, and godly brotherhood. Together, we grow in character, wisdom, and spiritual strength.

Ten Points of Accountability

1. Accountability Protects the Man (Galatians 6:1; Ecclesiastes 4:10)

- Guards against spiritual blind spots.
- Provides restoration when a man falls.
- Prevents isolation; the enemy works best when a man is alone.

Ten Points of Accountability

2. Accountability Promotes Growth in the Man (Colossians 3:16)

- Growth requires sharpening.
- Pushes a man beyond comfort.
- Aligns a man with Scripture, not opinion.

Ten Points of Accountability

3. Accountability Produces Strength in the Man (1 Thessalonians 5:11; Psalm 133:1)

- Strength comes from encouragement.
- Strength comes from unity.
- Strength comes from consistency.

Ten Points of Accountability

4. Accountability Requires Humility (Philippians 2:3; Proverbs 12:15)

- Humility opens the door for correction.
- Humility acknowledges weakness honestly.
- Humility protects relationships.

Ten Points of Accountability

5. Accountability Strengthens Personal Integrity (Psalm 15:1–2; Titus 2:6–8)

- Integrity grows when someone is watching your walk.
- Keeps a man honest in private.
- Reinforces consistency and dependability.

Ten Points of Accountability

6. Accountability Builds Spiritual Discipline (1 Corinthians 9:27; 1 Timothy 4:7)

- Discipline increases when goals are shared.
- Helps maintain prayer and Word life.
- Produces spiritual maturity.

Ten Points of Accountability

7. Accountability Strengthens Marriages and Families (Ephesians 5:25; Joshua 24:15)

- Men lead better when they are accountable.
- Helps husbands love sacrificially.
- Keeps fathers focused on raising godly families.

Ten Points of Accountability

8. Accountability Helps Men Overcome Temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13; Matthew 26:41)

- Temptation loses power when exposed.
- Provides escape routes and safeguards.
- Strengthens self-control.

Ten Points of Accountability

9. Accountability Creates a Culture of Trust (James 5:16; Proverbs 11:13)

- Trust grows through transparency.
- Eliminates secrecy and hidden struggles.
- Allows men to be vulnerable safely.

Ten Points of Accountability

10. Accountability Honors God (Colossians 3:17; Romans 12:1)

- Reflects Christlike character.
- Demonstrates obedience to Scripture.
- Produces a life offered to God daily.

Summary

- Accountability is maturity, not weakness.
- Accountability is protection, not exposure.
- Accountability is brotherhood, not control.
- Accountability is restoration, not judgment.
- Accountability is biblical, not optional.
